-101 DEGREES

Yesterday the Warmest Day of the Season and All Suffered.

NEW THREE-STORY BUILDING

To Be Erected On Market Street By John O'Keefe—Will Give That Thoroughfare a Better Appearance.

The Philip W. Wheeler property on West side of Market street, occupied by Mr. Wheeler's shoe shop, was sold yesterday to John O'Keefe of Market street who will immediately erect a three story brick building on the site. Mr. O'Keefe already owns the next door building occupied by the Chinese laundry and the small alley next to the laundry, and will use all this ground which will give him a thirty-two foot front on which to build. The building will be the whole length of the frontage, three stories, brick and will be in the usual store style structure. The whole building will be rented by Mr. O'Keefe, the first floor to be used as a store, the second for offices and the third as a lodge room. The sale was made by Mr. I. M. Lane.

With the erection of the Ringgold temple next door, Market street will easily take on an appearance of up-to-dateness. Mr. O'Keefe should receive the thanks of the entire community for thus removing from one our principal thoroughfares these old shacks and eye sores.

The contract has not yet been let but work of tearing down the present one story frame houses will begin within a few days.

The Wilson brand of "psychological prosperity" is merely a soup-house breeder.

"SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST"

He was a good master mechanic, proud of his camp, and of his job; too proud in fact, which explains the tragedy. He became suspicious of his men, fearing constantly that they were trying to undermine him, scheming for his job. He changed men constantly, planning thus to outwit them.

He builded better than he knew. He succeeded so well that no one was ever able to displace him. But years slip by quickly and, while Tobin was so busy holding onto his job and watching the other fellows who appeared envious, he failed to realize that the camp's usefulness was rapidly coming to an end, and, naturally, he got out of touch with progress in his profession.

When the end came Tobin had still survived and there he remains to this day.

Thomas Moore moved the world to tears with "The Last Rose of Summer."

That's because his rose was symbolic of so many Tobins.—Coal Age.

AN ANTIPROSPERITY SERUM.

The Administration boasts that it cares nothing for American business rights in Mexico. It refuses to consider them. It would be folly, of course, to destroy business at home and encourage it abroad. Doubtful the Administration may be on all other matters, but on one thing its conclusion is deliberate and fixed; the frightful sin of prosperity must be cured by national starvation. — Philadelphia Ledger.

NATIONS SEEK KNOWLEDGE.

The nations of the earth are seeking knowledge and the horrowing and larning of experts in various professions is becoming most common. China has recently asked for and will be sent a commission of experts to effect control, if possible, of its great flood rivers that carry so much destruction to life and property every year. We borrow the great engineer of the Assuan dam in Africa to instruct us further in the immense irrigation projects in the west, and we loan the noted Gorgas who made Cuba and Panama the cleanest and healthiest spots on earth to South Africa to teach the people sanitation. There is an exchange of lecturers and professors in the sciences and the art proving that there is a disposition the world over to better the conditions of man.—Pittsburgh Times.

CLIFFORD G. ROE TO BE HEARD HERE AT CHAUTAUQUA

"The New Moral Awakening"
Theme to Be Discussed by Attorney.

COMBATS WHITE SLAVERY.

As Prosecutor in Chicago Roe
Made an Envious Reputation.

The white slave traffic in one form or another is older than Babylon, but it has remained for the present age to see it systematized. Clifford G. Roe was the first champion to enter the field to combat this system of slavery as a prosecutor in Chicago, and at the Redpath Chautauqua this summer he is to talk of his interesting labors.

One of the interesting features of Mr. Roe's lectures is the presentation of material at first hand, and especially worth while are the confessions that the speaker has secured during his work as prosecutor. He does not contend that every inmate of a disorderly house is a white slave, but shows from statistics that over 50 per cent are such, especially in places of the lower type. Clifford Roe has tried to discipline the honors that are due him, but those who have followed his career know that it was he who started the first systematic fight against the buying and selling of girls and the holding of them in a peonage that should shame a great civilized nation. His banner has been carried to the national capital. The Mann white slave law was framed and passed as a result of his campaigns. Mr. Mann, for whom it was named, was stirred by Mr. Roe's campaign.

In the spring of 1911 Mr. Roe went to New York at the invitation of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., to act as his attorney and representative in making a study of the white slave situation. This work was completed in the spring of 1912, at which time Mr. Roe became general counsel and executive secretary of the American Vigilance association, the national organization then making a campaign against the white slave traffic. Mr. Rockefeller was one of the contributors of this organization. In 1913 Mr. Roe became president of the American bureau of moral education.

His lecture on "The New Moral Awakening" will be one of the best features of the Chautauqua here this summer.

PRaise CHAUTAUQUA.

Leading Men of Country Highly Com-mend Feast of Intellect.

Hon. Champ Clark, speaker of the national house of representatives: "A great many newspaper wits shoot their shafts at Chautauqua lecturers. They think it the height of sarcasm to refer to a public man as a Chautauquan. There is one great virtue in Chautauqua money. It is clean money. You don't have to explain where you got it. If a man does not desire to go to hear a lecture there is no law to compel him to do so. . . . I defend the Chautauqua and the Chautauqua lecturers, with whom I have been associated, because they constitute as fine a group of men and women as can be found among the splendid citizenship of America."

Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president of the United States: "The Chautauqua is the most distinctly American thing in this country."

Hon. William Jennings Bryan, secretary of state: "The Chautauqua affords one of the best opportunities now presented the public speaker for the discussion of questions of interest to the people. . . . I believe that a considerable part of the progress that is now being made along the line of moral and political reform is traceable to the influence of the Chautauqua."

Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus, president of Armour Institute of Technology and one of the world's greatest preachers: "The Chautauqua has become a great people's university. They are among the greatest feeders of our colleges and universities."

From unofficial sources it was learned that France and Germany have warned Haiti that its debts must be paid or else the custom houses will be seized.

RESTORING KEY'S FLAG

The Original Star Spangled Banner Is To Have A New Birth.

Work on the restoration of the original star spangled banner which floated from the flagstaff at Fort Mifflin when Key wrote the national anthem was recently begun at the Smithsonian Institution, Washington.

The flag measures 29 by 36 feet, the stars being two feet across from point to point, and the stripes two feet wide, and, according to the officials at the institution, it is the largest flag they knew ever to have been in action. It was deposited in the Smithsonian by Elen Appleton, the grandson of Colonel George Armstrong, who was commanding of Fort Mifflin at the time.

The bill for the restoration of the frigate Constitution, the oldest ship in the United States navy, which is to be towed to Baltimore from Newport, R. I., has passed the house and is now before the Senate.

In the office of the architect of the war department maps of Fort Mifflin, dating back as far as 1803 and 1819, have been found. They will be used in laying out the grounds of the fort for a park.

President Wilson has signed the bill granting Fort Mifflin to the city of Baltimore as a park. The bill passed both houses of Congress and has the approval of the war department.

THE WORTH OF PLAYGROUNDS.

At a meeting of the City Club in Philadelphia recently at which the subject of municipal recreation was under discussion one of the speakers gave utterance to the sentiment: "A foot of playground is worth an acre of penal institutions."

It is difficult to gauge the value of the playground, but in every city where a playground or a system of playgrounds has been established the testimony has been in favor of a beneficial institution. Most of our American cities did not give much thought to the recreation idea in the beginning, but now of them undertake to get along without playgrounds. Perhaps if the playgrounds were more numerous the country might be able to dispense with a few acres of its penal establishments.

That the playground has a civilizing and elevating influence is not to be doubted. Figures compiled in various cities show that juvenile offenses are fewest in localities where recreation grounds are available. They also show that there are fewer accidents and injuries to children in such neighborhoods. Children who are "raised up in the streets" make trouble for themselves and for other persons. In cities where there is not a playground system it is inevitable that children will play in the streets—for it is the nature of the child to play.

No city ever made a bad investment in buying a playground or in establishing a system of playgrounds. There are very few cities that are adequately supplied in this way.—Courier-Journal.

THIS KIDNEY REMEDY

A GREAT HEALER

For a number of years I was troubled with my kidneys, condition so serious that part of the time I was unable to work. Tried several remedies, also different physicians without relief. A sample of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root was left at my house. I commenced to take it and continued it until I had taken several bottles and am now cured. Am sixty-two years of age and able to work every day. I attribute my cure to the use of your Swamp-Root.

My wife also was cured by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. Symptoms were very serious, including hemorrhages, great pain and distress. I commenced giving her Swamp-Root and it was just as healing in her case. We can heartily recommend your Swamp-Root to all kidney sufferers.

Very truly yours,

H. C. GRIFFITH,

A GAME MANAGER

Even Hard Luck Cannot Dampen the Ardor of Herzog.

(New York Evening Sun.)

Charles Lingard Herzog, a former Giant who still remains extremely popular with New York fans, will be the attraction at the Polo Grounds this afternoon. Herzog will lead his reconstructed Cincinnati Reds against McGraw's men in the first game of a series that may have an important bearing on the National League championship.

The Reds, who have played phenomenal ball under the guidance of their young and energetic manager, are second in the race. If they are able to win two of the three games scheduled here they will return home with increased confidence prepared to fight harder than ever.

When Herzog asked Garry Herrmann last winter to secure his release from the giants the Cincinnati magnate and his famous Board of Directors were inclined to regard the request lightly, until Herzog's earnestness and confidence in his ability to make good as a major league manager induced them to take the chance. So Herrmann and his partners handed over Bob Bescher to the Giants in exchange for Herzog and Grover Hartley, the latter finally jumping to the Reds. Herzog took hold of the Reds where Joe Tinker left off. The team was disorganized and wrecked, yet the young manager went to work with a will, while Cincinnati's avowed chorus looked on in amazement.

Although the Reds have induced Packard, Hartley, Chief Johnson, Marsans and Davenport to desert the Yorkville team, Herzog has not lost heart. He has kept on working and his men, bristling with new enthusiasm, have worked with him. Herzog, therefore, comes here with a feather in his cap and a chip on his shoulder. He has more Dutchmen in uniform than local fans ever have seen on the same team—Hohltzcliff, Grah, Niehoff, Berghammer, Uhler, Lohr, Von Kohltz and Yingling—yet he says that the Dutch under his management surely will capture the Irish.

It is so unusual to see a Cincinnati team up in the race that the fans all over the circuit are turning out in large numbers. The Cincinnati Club will make much money in spite of the dull times. Herrmann and his Board of Directors are in clover and the avails

What has become of the old-fashioned man who used to sit out in the back yard after supper and play "The Mocking Bird" on the mouth organ?

The Great Idea Behind this Store

It hasn't been our purpose to make this good clothes store simply big in size. Rather all our thoughts, our efforts, have been directed toward making it genuinely useful to the community—a real public benefit. And our steady, consistent growth is not due to us, so much as it is to the steadfast loyalty of our patrons. It's their way of telling us that they believe in this store, its merchandise and its policies; that this is the kind of a store they want and always have wanted.

PREPARING FOR LAUNCHING OF MAMMOTH RIVER BOAT

Capt. H. P. Burnside, who will command the steamer Homer Smith now being built by the Howard Shipyard Company in Jeffersonville, applied for documentation papers at the office of Warner S. Kincaid, surveyor of the port, Louisville. The Security Steamboat Company, of Point Pleasant, W. Va., is the owner of the boat, which will be launched the first week in July.

According to Capt. Burnside the steamer will be the largest stern-wheel excursion boat ever built in this section. It will be 240 feet long and will have a fifty-foot beam. Tandem Compound engines will be used. They are being built at Marietta, O. The boat, which will ply between Pittsburgh and New Orleans, will have a capacity of between 2,500 and 3,000 passengers and will cost about $75,000. One of the novelties will be that of running cold and hot water in every stateroom. Ample provisions are being made for bathing facilities.

CATHOLIC VOWS STAND.

Church Law Upheld By Supreme Court In Decision By Hughes.

Washington.—Doubt cast upon the validity of vows of poverty in many Catholic orders was removed by the Supreme Court, reversing the decision of the Eighth United States Circuit Court of Appeals.

The lower court, sitting in Minnesota, held the vows void as against public policy, on the ground that they did not permit a person making them ever to withdraw from the order. The Supreme Court, speaking through Justice Hughes, announced that the lower court had fallen into error by not distinguishing between the religious and civil natures of the vows. It was pointed out a person was permitted under the organization of the orders to withdraw civilly, although his withdrawal in a religious sense was a matter of conscience.

The case arose in the settlement of the estate of Father Augustin Wirch, in charge of a church at Springfield, Minn., at the time of his death, despite his vow to the order of St. Benedict to possess no property and to turn over to the order all his worldly possessions.

In the presentation of the case to the court it was stated that the decision of the court below, if sustained, would throw in doubt the title to millions of dollars worth of property now held by religious orders, particularly those of the Catholic Church, which had incorporated into their regulations vows to poverty.

Deafness cannot be cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when this is closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; unless some agent is introduced by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars now.

MAY PROVE FATAL

When Will Maysville People Learn the Importance of It?

Backache is only a simple thing at first. But if you find 'tis from the kidneys, that serious kidney troubles may follow. That drowsy or bright's disease may be the fatal end. You will be glad to know the following experience.

'Tis the statement of a Maysville citizen. Mrs. Della Lunsford, 328 E. Front St., Maysville, Ky., says: "I attributed kidney trouble to a strain. I had sharp, shooting pains through my kidneys and a dragging down feeling through my hips. I had dull headaches and dizzy spells and often if I had not caught hold of something for support, I would have fallen. I was in that condition for several years, up one week and in bed the next. I finally began to notice symptoms of dropsy and in a short time I was suffering from that trouble. My feet began to swell and my hands were at times the same way. At night I was restless and always felt tired. I read of a similar case being cured by Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a supply. Before long I was completely and permanently cured. Doan's Kidney Pills saved my life. I am glad to confirm my former endorsement of this remedy."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Lunsford had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
